

The Man of Sorrows by the Column with the Virgin and Saint John, from The Engraved Passion

Date

1509

Primary Maker

Albrecht Dürer

Medium

Engraving

Description

Christ, as the central figure, is standing in front of a column with his arms crossed over his chest and exposing the wounds of the crucifixion. Mary, mother of Jesus, and St. John stand in front of a window which opens onto a scene of Golgotha. Following a trip to Italy in 1505-1507, Dürer began work on "The Engraved Passion", which was executed between 1507 and 1512.
