

Dante and Beatrice window

Date

c. 1927

Primary Maker

D'Ascenzo Studios

Medium

Stained glass and lead

Description

Decorative stained glass window. Central medallion depicts a seated Dante. Slightly to his rear is Beatrice attended by a hand-maiden. The entire picture is presented in a landscape. The outer edges of the medallion are decorated with cherub faces and the window edges are decorated with urns, trumpets, vines, etc.

Dimensions

Object: 102 × 50 3/4" (259.1 × 128.3 cm)